

Alda Fendi Foundation –Experiments

INACCESSIBLE

by Raffaele Curi

Rome - Old Jewish Fish Market
from March 21 to March 27, 2013

*“Our life is programmed upon inextricable mysteries.
The rational penetration of their resolutions is
INACCESSIBLE”.*

Alda Fendi – Experiments is pleased to announce INACCESSIBLE the new show conceived, written and directed by Raffaele Curi on stage in Rome at the Old Jewish Fish Market at the Circo Massimo from March 21 to March 27, 2013.

INACCESSIBLE a performance that explore the mysteries of our lives.

Art, architecture, music, poetry, cinema for the ninth show produced by the Alda Fendi Foundation - Experiments that this year will amaze the audience with a unique art installation designed by world-famous architect Jean Nouvel

INACCESSIBLE: the show has been organized and produced by the Alda Fendi Foundation – Experiments.

The Alda Fendi Foundation – Experiments was established in 2001 to produce art experiments in absolute creative freedom through multiple forms of expression. The Foundation will operate for a hundred and twenty years. Thus Alda Fendi fulfils her great dream of promoting and supporting her cultural project together with her daughters Giovanna and Alessia.

Raffaele Curi became the Creative Director of the Foundation at its inception after exploring diverse intellectual environments. His are the performances produced during the past eight years. “INACCESSIBLE” is the ninth show he has conceived, written and directed.

Press Office
Studio Martinotti
Francesca Martinotti
+39 348/7460312
martinotti@lagenziarisorse.it
www.francescamartinotti.com

www.fondazionealdafendi.it